Coughs—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" at used with advantage to alleviate Coughs, SORE THROAT, HOARSENESS and BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS. For thirty years these Troches have been in use, with annually increasing favor. They are not new and untried, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. sep14-d&w-1f

THE THROAT—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" not directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat and Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers find the Troches useful. sep14-d&w-1f

A COUGH, COLD, CATARRH or SORE THROAT requires immediate attention, as neglect often times results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will almost invariably give relief. Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are sold only in boxes. sep14-d&w-1f

45 Years before the Public THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

A frightful railroad accident occurred at Puerto-Kortez Central America. A train, consisting of two passenger coaches, mail and baggage cars, jumped the track at Golden Rock curve, on the Amour mountain, falling a distance of 70 feet. Nearly all on board were killed.

Several days ago the Grand Canyon Coal Company struck oil at a depth of 1,445 feet near Canyon city, Colorado. Boring had to be stopped until a pump was put in, on account of the gas. The well now yields from five to eight barrels per day. It is thought by boring deeper it will greatly increase in volume.

The N. Y. Herald's Madrid special Jan. 24th says: The floods and gales that ravaged the entire peninsula for ten days past are the severest on record. The floods have caused the inundation of half the crop of oranges and lemons, and an immense loss, estimated at over $10,000,000, to the agricultural interests.

NEW CHINESE TREATIES.

It seems to us that all Pacific Coast States would do well to make no factions opposition to the new Chinese treaties. If we do not want them, certainly the rest of the country does not. If we do not accept the present offer, it may be long before we get as good a one again. We are glad, therefore, that the resolutions introduced into our State Legislature opposing their ratification was voted down. Everybody on this coast was in favor of the fifteen Chinese passenger bill, which passed Congress last year; and many who now raise a voice of dissatisfaction at the terms of the present treaties are the ones who raised the loudest howl against President Hayes, when he vetoed the bill on the ground that it conflicted with the treaties in existence between the United States and China. At that time the fifteen passenger bill was all that was required. It was just the thing; but now when the President's objections are removed by the act of the Emperor of China, himself, and we are about to get just what we have been so long demanding, this objection now raised comes with an exceedingly ill grace, that borders upon downright impudence and political cowardness. It will be strong evidence to the people of the East that our past anti-Chinese declarations were not in good faith, but were only the monthings of unprincipled politicians, whose occupation, like that of Othello, will be gone, if they get what they have so long been demanding. When Commissioner Swift went to China everybody well knew his object, and knew that he went there to amend the existing treaties with that country so as to leave no question as to the right of the United States, under those treaties, to regulate or prohibit Chinese immigration to our shores. Swift has fully accomplished all that he went for—all that we asked of him, and now we find fault. Under the new treaty there can be no doubt that Congress can pass a law so restricting Chinese immigration as to practically prohibit it. There is but one unfavorable point about the whole matter, and that is no fault of the Emperor of China nor of Mr. Swift; that is English ships can engage in the coolie trade and ship them to the British possessions on our north-to Victoria and other points, and then run them across the line into Washington Territory, and thence all over the coast. The same traffic may also be carried on from Mexican territories; but as they will not be English or Mexican subjects our Congress will have the power, probably, to prohibit them from crossing the line into the United States. At all events the present treaties are better than none, and are all that we can get at present, and we had better accept them with a good grace.

E. E. Lund of Sacramento denies that the dead body floating on Oakland creek on Sunday is that of himself. The matter is now narrowed down to a mere question of veracity between Mr. Lund and Colonel Dargie, who recognized the remains.

The total population of Nevada, according to the census returns is 62,265.

WASHOE COUNTY.

[By the Surveyor General.]

Washoe County lies on the western border of the State and partly on the eastern slope of the Sierra Nevada Mountains, and is particularly favored by nature in its geographical position and manifold resources.

Its numerous valleys afford a rich prolific soil, which produces all the varieties of cereals, vegetables and fruits that are adapted to this altitude and latitude.

The mountainous portions afford timber, lumber and fuel, as well as an abundance of water to moisten the arid soil of the valleys and to afford a cheap and durable power for manufacturing purposes.

Its climate is mild and dry and healthful. While it may be classed as an agricultural county, almost every variety of minerals peculiar to this State may be found within its borders. The Pyramid and Peavine Mining Districts, yielding gold, silver, copper, iron, antimony, lead and other minerals in considerable quantities, are destined to take a leading part in the production of gold and silver.

In the Steamboat Springs District may be found silver, gold and antimony; also, sulphur in large deposits. Cinnabar is abundant one mile west of Steamboat Springs, where works for producing quicksilver have been erected and put in successful operation. Alum springs are also found near the south end of Truckee Valley; a fair article of plumbago has been discovered in the hills west of Washoe City. Salt, soda and borax deposits are abundant in the northern portion of the county. Pincer gold mines have been worked for several years on the north-west slope of Peavine Mountains and at the south end of Washoe Valley.

The Truckee River, which runs through the central portion of the county in an easterly direction, is a fine, bold, rapid stream of pure water, abounding in fish of several varieties; of these, the native mountain trout is the most numerous. This stream has an average fall of about forty feet to the mile, and affords an almost unlimited water power.

Population, 3,000. Altitude, 4,500 feet.

This thriving town, the county seat of Washoe County, sprang into existence on the completion of the Central Pacific Railroad to that point in May, 1868.

Its first buildings were constructed of rough lumber, and presented none of the refinements of architecture which to-day adorn most of its public buildings and private residences.

It has been twice almost entirely destroyed by fire. The last great fire occurred on March 2, 1879, when the principal business portion of the town was laid in ruins and nearly $2,000,000 worth of property destroyed. At this time, nearly two years later, it has, owing to the indubitable pluck and energy of its inhabitants nearly recovered from the effects of that disaster.

The town is situated on both sides of the Truckee river, on the Central Pacific Railroad, at the junction of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad and the Nevada and Oregon Railroad, and is the most important railroad center in the State.

The Truckee Valley, surrounding it, is a thickly settled farming country, and has the appearance of a well-to-do farming community in the older States. Its thrifty, populous surroundings, and its extensive and growing trade with the North, northeastern California and southern Oregon, insures its continued prosperity. On completion the Nevada and Oregon Railroad the commercial interests of the town will be materially advanced.

Reno has the finest passenger depot east of Sacramento on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad; W. R. Chamberlain is the proprietor.

The Court House, a capacious brick structure, but defective in architectural beauty, is located on the south side of the river.

An arched iron bridge, 197 feet long, spans the river and connects North and South Virginia streets. The Pavilion of the Nevada State Agricultural, Mechanical and Mining Society occupies a prominent position on the north bank of the river. Mount St. Mary's College, a well-built, but odd-looking structure, is situated north of the Central Pacific Railroad depot. The Young Ladies' Seminary, "Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls," is pleasantly situated on a considerable eminence in the northwest part of the town. Miss Kate A. Sill, of Warren Pennsylvania, is the Principal.

There are three Public School buildings, one of which is a fine edifice, situated in the northern portion of the town.

Reno contains five churches, five school houses, two banks, twelve hotels, twenty-two stores, two daily newspapers, one theater, one flouring mill, one foundry and machine shop, one planing mill, one salt mill, three lumber yards, three livery stables, two wagon manufactories, one tannery, one cabinet shop, five meat markets, one gas works, besides several small stores, shops and saloons, too numerous to mention. It has also one Masonic Hall, two Odd Fellows' Halls, one Templars' Hall, Knights of Pythias, and other secret societies. The town is incorporated and lighted with gas.

MANUFACTURES.

Reno, on account of its magnificent water-power, its near proximity to timber and fuel, and to mines and minerals, and on account of its railroad facilities and agricultural surroundings, is most favorably situated for manufacturing purposes, especially for smelting and reduction work. Almost every article used in the construction of furnaces and for fluxing and reducing ores, as well as the abundance and varieties of ores to be treated, are near at hand. Chemical works if established here, would find near at hand the raw material for manufacturing a great variety of acids and chemicals.

The great wool-producing country surrounding Reno and northward from it renders this point a most desirable one for the manufacture of woolen goods.

The semi-alkaline soil of the Truckee valley produces sugar-beets of a superior quality and of great size, hence a beet-sugar factory at this point ought to be a paying enterprise.

N. O. B. R. (NARROW GAUGE), RENO DIVISION.

This line has been partly located, and the work of constructing from Reno north to a point near Beckwith Pass, distant about thirty miles, has been put under contract, and is being rapidly prepared by the united engineering force of the company, for immediate construction and completion.

The route selected possesses the unusual advantage of being, in every respect, a natural highway from the mining regions of Nevada to the productive plains and valleys lying to the north in the counties of Plumas, Lassen and Modoc, in California, and of the southern and eastern Oregon, passing through the greatest cattle-producing and the finest timber district on the Pacific slope. Irrespective of the business to be derived from the transportation of gold silver, copper and iron ores, clay for pottery, fire-brick, wood, timber, and lumber in its various forms, cattle, sheep and hogs, it is safe to say that the income from the transportation of cattle alone, upon the completion of the first 100 miles, will of itself more than equal the operating expenses and interest account, leaving the income from all other sources for clear profit.

The well known mining interests in the counties of Plumas, Sierra, Lassen, and Modoc, California, Lake county, Oregon, now of comparatively small value because of their insolation, will by the facilities of transportation, be opened up and an industry fostered which cannot be overestimated in value.

The present prospects for business, as indicated by statistics gathered after extensive and careful investigation, are sufficiently encouraging to warrant the belief that the income of the road will reach very handsome proportions as soon as operations shall be fairly commenced and regular transportations over the first thirty miles of the road is established. It is apparent that the business of the road will from the very start prove highly remunerative. For the last several months 250 to 300 tons of merchandise per month have been shipped from Reno north by teams, which means of transportation has proven inadequate to the rapidly increasing demand, as evinced by the constantly accumulating freights at Reno, in vast quantities, now awaiting removal. To this should be added the great amount of freight which is now transported by teams from Redding across the Sierras into the counties of Lassen and Modoc, California, and Lake county, Oregon, aggregating the net amounts of from 400 to 500 tons per month, which will be diverted to Reno, and thence conveyed north by the Nevada and Oregon Railroad, as also return freights; wheat, oats, barley, hay, fruit, dairy products, machinery, passengers, mails and express matter, all of which will of course, rapidly increase under the inspiring influence of cheap and rapid transportation.

The work of construction and equipment having been contracted for with parties of unquestioned responsibility, upon a basis of a low bonded debt (only $10,000 per mile), and the cost not being excessive, coupled with the facts that cheap fuel and an unusually low grade will enable the road to be operated at economical rates, gives the company sufficient reason to estimate that the stock will pay a good dividend the first year, and that upon the completion of the next seventy miles the entire stock of the company will readily pay a dividend of ten per cent per annum.

The foregoing estimates of prospective income are based upon data which are wholly reliable and in many instances fifty per cent. below the carefully prepared estimates of prudent, reliable men, fully conversant with the facts. The entire interest upon first mortgage bonds and sinking fund provided to redeem the same will require only $3 per mile per day from the earning of the road.

The history of all the railroads in Nevada (some of which are known to have been started under conditions and prospects far less favorable than those enjoyed by this road) indicate that with greater demands (and in some instances economically greater) upon their net earnings, they readily pay handsome sums annually in the way of dividends, or, where preferred, store up handsome surplus amounts.

The Nevada & Oregon Railroad Company fortunately benefits the connecting lines of railway, and will be instrumental in increasing the general railroad business of Nevada, and therefore labors under no such disadvantage as might be natural if springing into an active and bitter competition for traffic upon some already partially occupied territory.

The business for Plumas and Sierra counties and adjacent region will naturally flow in the direction of Reno and Beckwith Pass, especially in Winter, to save time and great difficulties of teaming across from the Sacramento Valley.

It is the desire of this company to act in harmony with the best interests of communities in which they operate, and to so conduct their business as to promote the general welfare, and thus secure an active constituency along the line of their route with a sympathetic interest in the success of the company.

The work of construction commenced at Reno on the 22d of December, 1880, and will be pushed to completion.

Among the work in the mines on the Comstock lode last week ending Saturday Jan. 22, according to the weekly statement we find that the Con. Virginia raised 495 tons of ore, average assay $21.79. California 297 tons, assay $19.46. Yellow Jacket ran north toward the tunnel 65 feet, and found the ground dry and favorable. Sierra Nevada raised 71 tons, not assayed.

The proposed meeting of workmen to protest against the anti-Jewish agitation has been prohibited by police, in virtue of a provision of the anti-Socialist law. The prohibition caused a considerable sensation, in view of the fact that the government had not interfered with any of the anti-Semitic meetings.

THE LEGISLATURE.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, JAN. 24.

Senate.

Committee on Judiciary reported favorably on bill to reduce mileage of members of the Legislature, bill making the theft of live stock grand larceny without regard to value, and bill to amend Act in relation to interments in incorporated cities.

Edward H. Lee, a San Francisco letter carrier, was convicted in the United States District Court Wednesday morning of having stolen $20 from a letter which he had received to deliver to a Chinaman named Skus Lung, on the 4th of last August. Another indictment charged him with having embezzled a letter on the 15th of last March, addressed to Yut Wah and which contained $65, was dismissed. Judge Hoffman holding that he did not embezzle the letter, as it was proved that he had first abstracted the money and afterward delivered the letter to the person to whom it was addressed.

The Virginia Chronicle says that Thomas Mc Crum, who was accidentally shot in the foot by Nick Dormer some three weeks ago while quarrelling with Billy Hogan, is failing rapidly. Mc Crum's foot was amputated last week and for a time it was thought that he would get well, but County Physician Kirby has now given up all hope of saving his life. He cannot last much longer. Nick Dormer, who was unintentionally the cause of Mc Crum's injury, has left or parts unknown.

Robert K. Brown, who pleaded guilty in San Francisco of manufacturing spurious twenty-five and ten cent coins, was Thursday sentenced to four years' imprisonment in San Quentin, and to pay a fine of one dollar. Immediately after sentence the prisoner indited the following letter to the United States Marshal: "Jan. 20. Mr. Marshall as Friday is an unlucky day for me I would prefer Saturday to be taken to State Prison. R. R. Brown."

The U. S. Senate has concluded that Ben Hallaway's claim of $700,000 against the Government, for losses sustained by Indian depredations while transporting the overland mails, in the anti-railroad days, is only worth $100,000 and has voted him that amount.

The noon prayer meeting, Thursday, at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, in San Francisco, was seriously disturbed by an insane German named John Kahn, who suddenly jumped from his seat, screaming "peace! peace! peace! on earth and good will to all! Hurrah for Bismarck!" and assaulted the worshippers, scattering them right and left. He was arrested and placed in a straight-jacket at the City Prison. For nearly three hours afterward he kept up a continual cry of "peace! peace!" His was a of a religious turn, and he was under the impression that he was called to preach the gospel of peace. He has been an attendant on Moody & Sankey's revival meetings.

A telegram from Valparaiso of Jan. 20th, reports that a great battle has been fought near Chorillos, nine miles south of Lima. The Peruvians were defeated and driven from their positions with heavy loss. The Chilians hold Chorillos.

Hon. Henry Edgerton, of Sacramento, and Miss Virginia E. Taylor were married in San Francisco on Monday.

Read the Following:

John F. Henry & Co., Gentlemen:
This is to certify that I have a very large, extended practice in this northern part of Iowa; that my business is devoted to a treatment of the same cases, involving many which have been pronounced incurable by other physicians.
During the past year I have very freely used Henry's CARBOLIC SALVE, in a number of very aggravated cases and it has given the best of satisfaction. It is healing, emollient and antiseptic, and never disappoints the physician or patient.

W. L. HALL'S BALSAM

Croup, Colds, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the Respiratory Organs. It soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces of the Lungs, inflamed and poisoned by the disease, and prevents the night sweats and suffering across the chest which accompany it.
CONSUMPTION is not an incurable malady. It is only necessary to have the right remedy, and HALL'S BALSAM is that remedy. DON'T DES-PAIR OF RELIEF, for this benign specific will cure you, even though professional aid fails.

Dr. M. H. Hinsdale,

Kewanee, Ill., advises us of a remarkable cure of Consumption. He says:
"A neighbor's wife was attacked with violent lung disease, and pronounced beyond help from Quick Consumption. As a last resort the family was persuaded to try HALL'S BALSAM. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had used one-half dozen bottles she was about the house doing her own work. I saw her at her worst stage, and had no idea she could recover."

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight stinging or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a copious sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin, bluish hue, again changing to a dark and turbid appearance.
There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital urinary organs.

Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and purifying the blood, are the most congenial purgative ever perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being.
They cure not only the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.
